CWTA Educational Session

Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

June 6, 2007 – 8am-11am

The Toronto Board of Trade,
1 First Canadian Place
Adelaide Street Entrance
Toronto, Ontario

PROGRAM

8am – Registration

8.30am – Foreign Ownership Restrictions: Protectionism or Necessity?

An examination of the reasons why many believe the rules should be relaxed, the ways of structuring deals so as to stay within the current rules, and the policy considerations underlying any potential change to the existing regime.

Chair: Steve Whitehead, Partner, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

Speakers:

Barbara Miller, Partner, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

Larry Shaw, Consultant specializing in telecommunications policy, trade policy and strategic planning

9.30am – Refreshment Break

10am – Process at Industry Canada: The Rules of the Game

Industry Canada has developed a unique set of procedures in dealing with domestic and international spectrum policy-making, as well as in domestic licensing. Some find these congenial and efficient, while others find them baffling and opaque. The panelists will discuss their experiences with regulation at Industry Canada, and participants will be encouraged to share their own experiences in influencing the spectrum rules or gaining access to spectrum.

Chair: Stephen Acker, Partner, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

Speakers:

Marc Dupuis, Senior Director, Spectrum Planning and Engineering, Industry Canada

David Lewis, CEO, Ciel Satellite Limited Partnership

Ken Engelhart, Vice President, Regulatory, Rogers Communications Inc.
